

RODDAN

"Outside the box, non-mainstream formulas with thought based lyrics and melodies".

Singer-Songwriter Scott Roddan, who goes by the artist name "Roddan" is a West Coast American-Songwriter who writes and composes songs that include genres, Singer Songwriter, Blues, Folk, Pop, World, Rock, and Country.

Roddan released his first album "Music House" (2016) recorded in Austin TX and mastered at Yes Master Studio's Nashville, "Bleed 432" (2017) recorded at Smilin Castle Studios, and mastered at Congress House Studio both in Austin, and "Don't Be Troubled" (2018) also both recorded and mastered in Austin, TX.

Roddan's recordings have included several Grammy nominated co-vocalists, a SXSW award winning producer, and musicians associated with Stevie Wonder, Paul Simon, Shawn Colvin, Patty Griffin, Stevie Ray Vaughan, The Bodeans, John Mellencamp, Willie Nelson, Kris Kristopherson, film directors Robert Rodriguez and Quentin Tarantino, to name a few. His song, "Reconciliation" was a semi-finalist in the International Song Writing Contest.

Roddan's diverse writing skills, catchy melodies, thoughtful lyrics, diverse ensemble of supporting musicians and vocalists, are well worth the time to give Roddan a listen.

CONTACT:

Scott Roddan

email: RoddanMusic@gmail.com

web page: www.RoddanMusic.com

Soundcloud Music Link